Insult by Germans in Posen Starts Riot in Which 138 Persons Die.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, December 29 .- Firing by German officers on an allied autonobile carrying an American flag was the cause of street fighting in Posen last Friday, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copennagen. The Germans were defeated in the fighting. About 138 persons, including a number of women and children, were killed during the

Women and Children Killed. The dispatch says:

"There was severe fighting between the Poles and Germans in Posen Friday, which resulted in thirty-eight women and children and about 100 Germans and Poles being killed. The affray originated as a result of a German officer firing on an allied automobile which was proceeding to Warsaw carrying the American flag.

"The Germans insulted the flag, and the Polish guard was called out. The fighting lasted several hours and the Germans were defeated.

"A delegation from the British mission to Posen protested to the German commander in the town, Gen. Schinmelfeng, but the German officer declared that he had no control over the soldiers." There was severe fighting between

Polish Official Report.

(by the Associated Press).—A Polish official report concerning the riot in Posen on the arrival of Ignace Jan Paderewski, who is on his way here, says the trouble began when allied and American flags were hoisted over

The Germans demanded that the flags be hauled down. The Poles refused to acquiesce, whereupon the Germans brought up machine guns and began firing in the streets, driving believe the property and dispersing and began firing in the streets, driving back the crowds and dispersing the Polish troops.

Finally the German officials took down the flags. Meanwhile the Poles reassembled and began to return the German fire. The fighting continued from 2 o'clock in the afternoon to 7 o'clock.

The Germans provoked another incident by trying to prevent Paderewski from going about the streets. They called on the British Col. Wade and told him that if Pederewski was permitted to go about it would be the cause of trouble between the Polish and German populations. Col. Wade cause of trouble between the Polish and German populations. Col. Wade made no answer. He merely turned his back on the Germans and got into a motor car with Paderewsiki. The arrival of Paderewski and British and American officers has created much enthusiasm here. The hope is expressed that their arrival will stamp out bo!shevism and prevent anticipated trouble in Warsaw.

TAFT APPROVES WILSON TRIP.

Discussing League, Refers to "Politicians" Both Sides of Water. NEW YORK, December 30 .- Approval of President Wilson's trip to Europe and of his plans for a league of nations was expressed by William Howard Taft in an address yesterday under the auspices of the Brooklyn Institute of Art and Sciences. He asserted that the President had more influence with the common people of England and the other allies "than their own princes," and attributed this to his enunciation of the prin-ciples for which the United States en-tered the war and to the league-ofnations proposal.
"You will notice," he said of the prod league, "that Lloy posed league, "Inat Lloyd George and Clemenceau have come out for it. Of course, I don't want to suggest any ulterior political motives, but there are politicians in Europe as well as in the United States."

DESCRIBES BATTLE FATAL TO QUENTIN ROOSEVELT

Young German Aviator Who Claims to Have Shot Him Down Lauds His Gameness.

By the Associated Press.
WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Saturday, December 28. -Christian Donhauser, the young German aviator who claims to have shot down Quentin Roosevelt near Chambry, France, on July 14, told the correspondent today of the battle which ended fatally for the son of the former President of the United States. He said: "I was one of a party of six German aviators, and on July 14 sighted six American machines east of Fereen-Tardenois. One American, who, I learned later, was Quentin Roose rearned later, was Quentin Roosevelt, was ahead of the rest of his squadron and off to one side. He came straight at me, and I swooped down under his machine. We seesawed back and forth, peppering away, and each trying to gain the advantage by climbing above each other. "Roosevelt made several loops and I admired his gameness. Once I thought his machine gun was jammed, but a second later he began again to shoot and I felt the bullets striking but a second later he began again to shoot and I felt the bullets striking my plane. Then I mounted above him and swooped down to within twenty meters of him, firing all the time. Then I saw my opponent collapse and his machine began to fall."

Donhauser, who is a non-commissioned officer and sneaks English, has relatives living in Michigan. He was credited with thirty aerial victories in the fighting after July 1, when he entered the German aris service.

The battle with Lieut. Roosevelt, the German aviator said, was fought at an altitude of between 2.000 and 3.000 meters. In the fight bullets from Lieut. Roosevelt's machine gun pierced the German aviator's machine in twenty places.
